Massage

A good Chinese Massage is a combination of professional treatments, where relaxation and pain relief are the ultimate goal.

- This massage is an effective treatment of complaints in the neck, the shoulder, the back or the leg
- or a unique treatment to relax the muscles, combat stress, and stimulate vitality.

It is key that the right treatment is selected and performed in a professional way.

Professor dr. Jiang

Vice-president of Traditional Medicine in Hong Kong and an award winner of the Chinese Redbud Medical Achievement Award – application of Traditional Chinese Medicine in combination with Western Medicine – , will ensure that the appropriate treatment will be chosen.
