

Announcements for Dr. Jiang's patients

One the top-5 universities in China has offered Professor Dr.Y.Q. Jiang a named professorship and has asked him to be directly involved in the development of new medicine.

Dr. Jiang has accepted this position of great honour, but at the same time he realises that many patients in the Netherlands still need his help. Therefore he has taken measures to continue offering his services as much as possible.

The practice on the Geldersekade will become a Multifunctional Centre as of 1 October 2010.

In the absence of Dr. Jiang, as the manager of the Multifunctional Centre, Dr. Xiang Yang Wang (brother-in-law and apprentice) will be available for you as an intermediary for a diagnosis.

Once every 3 months Dr. Jiang will give consultations in Amsterdam himself.

The next time will be from 13th of October to the 27th of October 2011.

Contact Dr. Jiang

During his stay in China, Dr. Jiang will have access to your file.

You can contact him directly in the following ways:

1. Telephonic consultation on Monday to Saturday from 10.00 to 13.00 European Time. You first call 0900-1800 (tele-discount) and you will hear the price per minute for this call. Then you key 0086-15967488912 and # (press 'star').
Using tele-discount will reduce the costs for the call. The call is conducted in Dutch.
2. E-mail, which will allow you to add a digital photograph of the latest exterior condition, if necessary. You can use the website, or send the email directly to chinamc@planet.nl
3. During the consultation hours indicated above, Dr. Wang can also make a call or send an email message on your behalf..
